

Going Places.

The arrival of the first passenger train in 1908 changed the face of business and industry in Princeton and brought with it opportunities for growth and development previously unknown to this Southern West Virginia town.

Now, almost a century later, MCNB is changing the face of banking, setting new standards and providing the funding for the growth and development for the next 100 years... Princeton, together we're going places.

322 S. Walker • Princeton, WV 24740 • (304) 425-3000

Your money. Your choice. Your bank.